VENUE AND JURISDICTION

7. The incident described herein-below or events giving rise to Plaintiff's claim against Defendant arose in McAllen, Hidalgo County, Texas. Venue for this cause of action therefore lies in Hidalgo County, Texas.

8. The damages that Plaintiff is seeking from Defendant are within the jurisdictional limits of the Court. This Court therefore has jurisdiction for this cause of action.

FACTS

9. On or about June 3, 2019, Plaintiff purchased an airline ticket from Allegiant to fly from McAllen Texas to Las Vegas Nevada on June 13, 2019. Plaintiff is a quadriplegic and disabled. Plaintiff made Allegiant aware of his disability and the need for assistance with boarding the airplane when he purchased the ticket online through Allegiant's website. Allegiant assured Plaintiff that it would provide Plaintiff with assistance in safely boarding the airplane at the McAllen airport before the airplane flew to Las Vegas.

C-1977-21-E

While boarding the airplane, two men who were working for Defendants attempted to transfer Plaintiff from an aisle wheelchair to a seat on the airplane. The seat had armrests that were made of steel or metal and did not move up and down. The men placed a bedsheet underneath Plaintiff while he sat on the wheelchair and lifted Plaintiff from the wheelchair by grabbing and lifting the sheet with Plaintiff being positioned in the sheet. One of the men let go of the sheet, causing Plaintiff to fall and land on an armrest of the seat. Plaintiff's buttocks and right hip hit the armrest, causing his right hip to dislocate. After the men dropped Plaintiff, they told Plaintiff they had never transferred a person who was a quadriplegic from an aisle wheelchair to a seat on an airplane. The men had been loading luggage onto the airplane or working on the tarmac or apron before they attempted to lift Plaintiff from the wheelchair and dropped him on the armrest. The men were not educated, trained, or experienced in assisting a quadriplegic with boarding an airplane and safely placing him in a seat. Plaintiff was 5 feet, 11 inches tall and weighed approximately 220 pounds. Defendants should have used a lift and transfer hoist to transfer Plaintiff from the aisle wheelchair to a seat on the airplane, but failed to do so.

10. At the time of the incident, Plaintiff was 37 years of age. Plaintiff is a diabetic. His dislocated hip is inoperable due to the probability of his hip not staying in place after surgery and his surgical wounds not healing. As a result of Plaintiff's right hip being dislocated, his body is deformed. His right hip, leg and foot are positioned several inches higher than his left hip, leg, and foot. His body has shifted and is crooked, uneven, and unbalanced. As a result, Plaintiff has developed several large, stage-4, pressure ulcers on his buttocks, hips, and legs which have caused him to suffer additional physical deformities to these parts of body. The ulcers developed a few days after the incident occurred, and still have not healed, two years after the incident. Before the Covid-19 Pandemic began, Plaintiff spent 4 months in a hospital and nursing home receiving medical treatment and wound care for his ulcers. He now receives medical treatment and wound care for the ulcers at his home. The ulcers and dislocated hip cause Plaintiff to sweat all day long, and he suffers from headaches daily. Plaintiff is constantly dehydrated and is forced to drink an excessive amount of water and other fluids.

CAUSE OF ACTION BASED ON NEGLIGENCE-HIGH DEGREE OF CARE OF A COMMON CARRIER AND PROXIMATE CAUSE

11. At the time that is material to the incident described herein-above, Defendants were performing services as a common carrier. Defendants had a responsibility to perform these services with a high degree care but failed to do so. Defendants committed the following acts and/or omissions:

- A. In failing to educate and train their employees, contractors, and/or agents regarding how to properly and safely transfer a person who is a quadriplegic from an aisle wheelchair to a seat on an airplane, as a very cautious, competent, and prudent person would have done under the same or similar circumstances,
- B. In failing to have educated, trained, qualified, and experienced employees, contractors, and/or agents available at the airport to properly and safely transfer Plaintiff, a quadriplegic, from an aisle wheelchair to a seat on the airplane, as a very cautious, competent, and prudent person would have done under the same or similar circumstances,
- C. In failing to have enough, more than 2, educated, trained, qualified, and experienced employees, contractors, and/or agents available at the airport to properly and safely transfer Plaintiff, a quadriplegic, from an aisle wheelchair to a seat on the airplane, as a very cautious, competent, and prudent person would have done under the same or similar circumstances,
- D. In their employees, contractors, and/or agents using their hands and a bedsheet to transfer Plaintiff from the aisle wheelchair to a seat on the airplane, as a very cautious, competent, and prudent person would not have done under the same or similar circumstances,
- E. In failing to use a lift and transfer hoist to transfer Plaintiff from the aisle wheelchair to a seat on the airplane, as a very cautious, competent, and prudent person would have done under the same or similar circumstances,
- F. In failing to provide Plaintiff with a seat on the airplane that had armrests that moved up and down, as a very cautious, competent, and prudent person would have done under the same or similar circumstances,

C-1977-21-E

- G. In transferring Plaintiff over a metal armrest of a seat on the airplane that did not move up and down, as a very cautious, competent, and prudent person would not have done under the same or similar circumstances,
- H. In dropping Plaintiff as they transferred him from the aisle wheelchair to a seat on the airplane, as a very cautious, competent, and prudent person would not have done under the same or similar circumstances,
- I. In allowing Plaintiff's body to hit or make contact with the metal armrest of a seat on the airplane as they transferred him from the aisle wheelchair to a seat on the airplane, as a very cautious, competent, and prudent person would not have done under the same or similar circumstances, and/or
- J. In failing to comply with the Air Carrier Access Act and Department of Transportation, Title 14, Code of Federal Regulations, Part 382 – Nondiscrimination On The Basis of Disability In Air Travel, when boarding Plaintiff on the airplane and transferring him from the aisle wheelchair to a seat on the airplane, as a very cautious, competent, and prudent person would have done under the same or similar circumstances.

These acts and/or omissions by Defendants, taken either singularly or in combination, one with other or others, constitute negligence, which negligence was the sole proximate cause, or a proximate cause of the incident described herein-above and of the injuries and damages suffered by Plaintiff, as set out herein-below.

ALTERNATIVE CAUSE OF ACTION BASED ON NEGLIGENCE PER SE AND PROXIMATE CAUSE

12. At the time that is material to the incident described herein-above, Defendants failed to comply with the Air Carrier Access Act and Department of Transportation, Title 14, Code of Federal Regulations, Part 382 – Nondiscrimination On The Basis of Disability In Air Travel. In this regard, Defendants were negligent per se, and this negligence per se was the sole proximate cause or a proximate cause of the incident described herein-above and of the injuries and damages suffered by Plaintiff, as set out herein-below.

C-1977-21-EDAMAGES

13. As a proximate cause of the negligence of Defendant in causing the incident described herein-above, Plaintiff suffered injuries, suffered physical pain and mental anguish in the past, will suffer physical pain and mental anguish in the future, suffered physical impairment in the past, will suffer physical impairment in the future, suffered physical disfigurement in the past, will suffer physical disfigurement in the future, incurred medical expenses in the past, and will incur medical expenses in the future. Plaintiff is seeking monetary relief from Defendants in the amount of $10,000,000.00, as compensation for his damages.

GROSS NEGLIGENCE-EXEMPLARY DAMAGES

14. At the time that is material to the incident described herein-above, Defendants acted with gross negligence in causing the incident and Plaintiff's resulting injuries and damages described herein. Plaintiff therefore seeks exemplary damages from Defendants as provided by Chapter 41 of the Texas Civil Practice and Remedies Code.

JOINT AND SEVERAL LIABILITY

15. Plaintiff requests that Defendants be held jointly and severally liable to Plaintiff for of all of Plaintiff's damages alleged herein, including exemplary damages.

VICARIOUS LIABILITY

16. At the time that is material to the incident described herein-above, Defendant's employees, contractors, and agents, including ATSI as it pertains to Allegiant, acted within the course, scope, and authority of their employment, contractual, and/or agency relationships with Defendants. Defendants should therefore be held vicariously liable to Plaintiff for all of Plaintiff's damages alleged herein, including exemplary damages.

PREJUDGMENT AND POST-JUDGMENT INTEREST

17. Plaintiff further sues Defendants herein for prejudgment interest at the maximum rate allowed by law on those damages where such interest may be assessed and for post-judgment interest at the maximum rate allowed by law on all of Plaintiff's damages alleged herein, including exemplary damages, from the date of judgment until the judgment is paid in full.

REQUEST FOR JURY AND JURY FEE

18. Plaintiff requests that the above-styled and numbered cause be tried to a jury and represents to the Court that the proper jury fee has been paid to the Clerk of this Court with the filing of Plaintiff's Original Petition.

WHEREFORE, PREMISES CONSIDERED, Plaintiff prays that upon final hearing, he have judgment against Defendants for all of his damages alleged herein, including exemplary damages, for prejudgment and post-judgment interest, and for any and all other relief, both general and special, in law and in equity, and for all costs of Court in his behalf expended.
